

Release Notes

3.0.4 – April 1st, 2024

- Combined driver installer for all Max printers along with legacy Kodiak.
- LabelForge PRO windows installer will now install the latest drivers.
- Added zooming to the data source connector label view.
- Added ribbon saver feature for KodiakMax.
- Allow the printer to be mounted as a mass storage device for ToroMax and KodiakMax.
- Added the ability to search PDF's on ToroMax and KodiakMax.
- Added label and file searching to home on ToroMax and KodiakMax.
- Added searching to insert symbols dialog on ToroMax and KodiakMax.
- Added overprint option for individual label designer items for KodiakMax.
- Added option to print non-sequential records for ToroMax and KodiakMax.
- Changed data field information to be visible in the data source connector.
- Changed premade signs to not automatically load the background.
- Changed data source connector fields to be stacked for easier readability.
- Changed white base to be default off.
- Changed combo boxes in various modules to allow for easier editing.
- Changed live chat button to the newest link.
- Fixed orientation issues with portrait in label designer.
- Fixed fit in view for n-up.
- Fixed premade signs missing under the Spanish category.
- Fixed application closing when trying to cancel a save on close.
- Fixed records enumerating on label after adding a spreadsheet data source is canceled.
- Fixed overprint printing when invisible pen or fill color.
- Fixed image import progress showing up into a tab.
- Fixed printing issues with thin long labels printing from windows to KodiakMax.
- Removed record range when printing in favor of non-sequential field (allows entering a range) for ToroMax and KodiakMax.